At the dawn of human history, before the formation of tribes and nations, a calamity with unimaginable scope and reach rocked creation. For those personally involved, nothing would be the same – their previous reality was ripped away, relationships were ruptured, every aspect of their lives indelibly shattered. Nothing worse could have happened.

Noah's Flood Was Global. The flood was not localized in the Mesopotamian valley, as many Christians believe, but was global in extent. When the waters reached the highest, there was no land above sea level anywhere on the planet. Only a global flood would cover all the high mountains under the heavens by at least 15 cubits (about 25 feet or 7 meters: Genesis 7:19).

catastrophe theory. From the Ito transformation rules we derive a generalized version of SCT that does remain invariant under  $\hat{\cdot}$  transformation and can include Cobb's SCT as a special case. We show that an invariant function is obtained by multiplying the probability density function with the diffusion function of the stochastic process.
