The Korean War: A History is a nonfiction book by American historian Bruce Cumings, first published in 2010. It is an exhaustive history of the years leading up to the Korean War, the war itself, and the occupation in the aftermath. While the Korean War is considered by most Americans a near-forgotten conflict that lasted from 1950 to 1953, Cumings expands his scope and shows it as a generations-long struggle that still affects contemporary events.
