Security as Practice - Taylor & Francis

Discourse, and mapping discourse, is the central concern of Security as Practice. For those readers who are looking for a better understanding of how to design research that seeks to use a poststructural form of discourse analysis, Hansen's treatment of this key concept is both sophisticated and useful.

A User's Guide: Analyzing Security as Discourse

Discourses of exceptionalism, debates about 'liberty' and 'security', and practices of security as a technique of government. Hansen accuses the School of lacking an understanding of gender-based insecurities. Endeavors to show how research based on post-structuralist discourse analysis can be yield beneficial insights.
