In The Big Picture Story Bible, David Helm and Gail Schoonmaker simply yet superbly tie together the. Grasping the continuity of the Bible is difficult, even for adults. It's easy to read it as many separate stories, each one written to reveal something about God but not necessarily connected to one another.

The Big Picture Story Bible by David R. Helm

AUTHOR. "The Big Picture Story Bible tells the story of 'God's people in God's place, under God's rule'. With an emphasis on anticipating Jesus in the Old Testament, and making his crucifixion and resurrection the proper climax of the New Testament, this book is set apart from most. Not shying away from theology, albeit expressed simply, the meaning of the atonement is conveyed from the Exodus, Kings and prophets, to the New Testament fulfilment of Christ's redemptive mission.
