We do not really have any choice about which God we worship, or which of these two attributes we focus on, for it is the Almighty transcendent God whom we also know as the God who draws near to us. If the god we experience in personal prayer and worship is not also the Almighty, the majestic sovereign Lord, the Holy One, then our god is not God at all, but a poor substitute created by our own personal subjective experience.

Hebrews 11:6 - Without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who draws near to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who seek Him. The great passion of this writer is that we draw near to God. That we come to his throne to find all the help we need.

Let Us Draw Near to God | Desiring God

The Bible calls us to draw near to God but we also need to see the danger of drawing near to God. Have you ever truly considered who the God of the Bible is? The God of the Bible is not a soft pushover that we can manage and boss around; He's a dangerous God, and drawing near to Him is dangerous if we don't come the right way.

Draw Near to God: The Danger (Part 2) - Tim Conway

God planted a garden to be near His children. Adam and Eve drew near in the Garden to walk and talk with God. Sadly, the first couple was deceived by the lies and worldview of Satan (just like the church James was addressing), and they chose to sin against God. As a result, they were separated from God.

Today, the reality. Specifically, the text that is prompting this whole series is James 4:8. Just the first 11 words, at least the way it is in my ESV Bible. “Draw near to God and He will draw near to you.”. Father, I pray that You’d open up Your Word to us.

Draw Near to God: The Reality - Tim Conway | I'll Be Honest

There is a sense in which God draws all men. This is known as the “general call” and is distinguished from the “effectual call” of God’s elect. Passages such as Psalm 19:1-4 and Romans 1:20 attest to the fact that God’s eternal power and divine nature are “clearly seen” and “understood” from what has been made, “so that ...
